50X1-HUM

1. In August 1951, newly arrived Soviet troops (mostly motorized) were housed in Bucharest, Constanta and in Turnu Severin. To make room for the troops, barracks occupied by 13 and 18 Rumanian Artillery Regiments, 34 Infantry Division, and the Rumanian Navy, as well as the homes of officials, the Palace of Justice, the Prefecture, the Karoli Hotel, the technical school, the Military Hospital and the junior college were evacuated.
  - a. Reportedly, 15,000 Soviet troops are in Constanta.
  - b. The Rumanian troops at Constanta were removed to the Tataia district. Many Soviet aviators are located in the latter area.
2. All along the coast of Constanta is located a system of trenches and artillery positions. The trenches and artillery fortifications are about 400 meters apart.
3. Before World War II, Rumania had fifteen sugar refineries in full operation. Production has dropped from seventeen thousand carloads to nine thousand carloads (about ninety thousand tons).
  - a. The Chitila refinery near Bucharest is the greatest producer of sugar.
  - b. During the busy season this refinery employs about a thousand employees.
  - c. Engineers receive from 12,000 to 18,000 lei per month, assistant engineers receive from 10,000 to 12,000 lei per month, foremen receive from 8,000 to 10,000 lei per month and workers receive from 4,500 to 8,000 lei a month.
  - d. About 35 percent of the salaries earned is held back for taxes.
